Headline:
Sunny spells and staying dry but feeling cooler.

Today:
Morning cloud, particularly in the east, clearing as we move into the afternoon making way for plenty of sunshine. Feeling warm with a gentle breeze and staying dry. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Some patchy cloud appearing into the evening, with plenty of clear skies and remaining dry. A cooler night for most, especially in rural locations. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Friday:
Remaining dry, with plenty of sunny spells. Feeling warm in the sun with light winds. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Saturday remaining dry but fewer sunny spells. Clearer with sunny spells and dry on Sunday. Monday is cloudier with light winds. Overall warm enough by day, but quite cool overnight.
